This seminar will answer questions such as:

- Why does a person who feels rejected become a “people pleaser?”
- How does a child develop a positive or a negative self-image, self-worth and self-acceptance?
- What underlying motivation causes a person with rejection to perform?
- How does rejection affect the husband, the wife, the children and even friendships?
- What does the Bible teach about rejection?
- Where do roots of bitterness originate?
- What is the difference between biblical and emotional roots?
- How does Satan get an advantage over a Christian?
- How does one walk through the process of forgiving?

This seminar has set thousands of people free from the bondage of the past, allowing them to enjoy their present and have hope for their future. Don't miss this powerful seminar! You will be encouraged, strengthened and challenged.
